I love and miss you so much Dad. I'm so grateful I have so many videos and memories of you that nobody can ever take away from me. Please give me strength to live life without you. I'll miss your "How are you doing" texts or "wanna have some drinks with your old man?" From now on I'll have a box of your wine in my fridge. Love you soo much.

I had the true pleasure of working with Theo at DHR, and from the very beginning, he showed what kind of person he was — kind, hardworking, and deeply devoted to his family. His love for his daughter was evident in everything he did, especially during the moments when she needed him the most. Family was always his priority.No matter what was going on in his own life, Theo showed up every day with a smile on his face and a positive attitude. He carried himself with quiet strength and grace, never letting his struggles overshadow his kindness toward others.I will always smile thinking about the monthly texts asking for help figuring out his bills — even though I had taught him time after time. Those moments were so uniquely Theo and will forever be a cherished memory.He will be deeply missed, but never forgotten. His presence, his heart, and his unwavering love for his family will live on through all of us who were blessed to know him.Rest in peace, Theo. You will be truly missed ☐—Cassandra
